- Students should register at the courses' e-address given above and by sending an e-mail to the lecturer. In case of Innovation students should send an e-mail to the lecturer.
- Students should register to either Métodos de Investigação em Engenharia or Research Methods in Engineering

Métodos de Investigação em Engenharia and Research Methods in Engineering address the same subject, have similar learning outcomes and demand similar effort; one is taught in Portuguese and the other in English;

Foreign students from non-Portuguese speaking countries have preference on choosing the English taught course - Research Methods in Engineering;
There is a limit of 25 students to attend this course.
